WASHINGTON, DC - BlackBox Partners CEO Bill Dannenmaier accepted an invitation to present at the July 2007 monthly meeting of the Washington, DC chapter of the Project Management Institute.

Bill will be speaking about the Organizational Project Management Maturity Model (OPM3) in a presentation titled, "OPM3 - What's in it for my organization and me" -- In this presentation Mr. Dannenmaier will describe the PMI's OPM3 specification; how OPM3 relates to the PMBOK, Project Management Standard, and Portfolio Management Standard; what is in OPM3; and what it can do for project and program-centric organizations.

William H. (Bill) Dannenmaier, the Chief Executive Officer of BlackBox Partners, LLC, has a broad background that crosses industries, functions, and cultures. Bill is a disabled veteran of the U.S. Navy with over 20 years of experience in managing people and projects. He is a Project Management Professional, PMP, with a depth of experience in the information technology and telecommunications sectors working with government agencies, startups, and established companies. He has served as a project manager in the United States, Switzerland, and Austria. He applies his extensive experience working in foreign languages and cultures to cross-cultural and "corporate cultural" issues. BlackBox Partners is a Service-Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) offering project management and database services.
